25X1

1. Georg Henke is the DDR's permanent representative in Moscow for matters concerning CMEA, the Soviet-sponsored Council of Mutual Economic Assistance.¹ Henke has been in Moscow at least since the beginning of 1952. He is a close personal friend of Dr. Heinz Rauch, head of Main Section Two in the DDR's State Central Administration for Statistics of the State Planning Commission. Rauch assumed the post early in 1952. He had been in Moscow prior to this time.
2. Zinke (fnu), an SED member, is in charge of CMEA affairs in the DDR State Planning Commission. His office is attached to the Office of the Chairman of the State Planning Commission.
3. In the DDR Ministry of Foreign and Domestic Trade, Schwager (fnu) is referent for CMEA affairs. He replaced Holmelin (fnu) in April 1952.

1. Georg Henke had been relieved of this post. His successor was reported to be Wilhelm Bonaschek.
